Wine directory

White wines	g	b
Left Bank Chardonnay Southern France Crisp and light with aromas of pineapple; a perfect balance of oak and fruitiness	36	180
Lumina Pinot Grigio Veneto, Italy Light, zesty and refreshing; the classic Italian grape produces an amazingly quaffable summer tippie	39	190
Skuttlebutt Sauvignon Blanc/Semillon Margaret River, Australia These Bordeaux grapes are blended beautifully in this quirky Aussie classic. Stoned fruits and citrus peel rounded off with a mellow, lingering finish	43	210
Torres Viña Sol Cataluña, Spain A perennial favourite at Left Bank; The Viña Sol is the perfect summer wine. Easy drinking, fruity and refreshing with just a hint of fennel	43	210
Peter Lehmann Riesling Eden Valley, Australia One of the most popular Rieslings on the market, Peter Lehmann has created a steely, brittle and zesty wine which is as good with food as it is enjoyed by itself	45	220
Mud House Sauvignon Blanc Marlborough, New Zealand Mud House leads with the classic Marlborough flavours of gooseberry, asparagus and green apples with just a hint of passion fruit. This wine typifies everything that made the New Zealand Sauvignon so famous	48	240
Château Ste. Michelle Chardonnay Washington State, USA A big and bold Chardonnay from Columbia Valley, Château Ste. Michelle barrel ferment this wine to give it an amazing burst of flavour with tropical fruits, a touch of acidic citrus and a luscious lingering oaky after taste	53	260

RED wines	g	b
Left Bank Syrah Southern France Dark fruits, light tannins and a hint of oak and chalk on the finish in this easily enjoyable red	36	180
Smoking Loon Syrah California, USA A great flavour-led wine from the Smoking Loon winery. Big berry fruits, a pleasant roundness and a good body make this a really enjoyable wine at any time of day	39	190
Valdivieso Merlot Central Valley, Chile Dry, smooth and well-balanced, red and black currants mix decadently with dark chocolate and cherry	42	200
Stump Jump Red McLaren Vale, Australia The D'Arenberg's take on the Rhône blend of Grenache, Syrah and Mourvedre is much more 'fun' than its French counterpart. Stump Jump has acquired a very loyal following and is a must-try wine	45	220
Bolla Valpolicella Verona, Italy Light, fragrant and smooth. The Valpolicella region now ranks second only to Chianti in Italian wine production because of its enjoyable and appealing style. A great match for food and easily enjoyable on its own	48	240
Skuttlebutt Shiraz Cabernet Sauvignon Margaret River, Australia Another quirky wine from one of Australia's most increasingly popular producers. This predominantly Shiraz blend is mellow and full with great winter berry flavours and a hint of oak	48	240
Torres Celeste Tempranillo, Ribera Del Duero, Spain This multi-award winning red begins with dark cherry, pepper and liquorice on the nose. The palate bombards the taste buds with intense fruity flavours and ripened tannins. Celeste really is 'out of this world'	53	260

Rosé wine	g	b
Bardolino Chiaretto Veneto, Italy A more classical style of rosé, the Chiaretto carries hints of wild strawberry and raspberry but also a good level of citrus and grapefruit. A perfect rosé for matching with food.	36	190
Santa Digna Cabernet Rosé Curico Valley, Chile This wine was voted best Rosé in the 2007 Vinexpo in Bordeaux and is blissfully veiled with strawberries, red currants and pink grapefruit on the nose. The medium-dry palate is bursting with summer fruits, grapefruit and citrus.	42	200
<h2>Champagne and sparkling wine</h2>
Moet & Chandon Brut Imperial N/V A classic non-vintage Brut from one of the largest Champagne houses in the world. Dry, crisp and biscuity with good citrus and fruit flavours, the original Champagne style.	120	695
Veuve Clicquot Yellow Label Brut N/V If you can measure the success of a Champagne house by the consistent quality of its N/V wines then Veuve Clicquot has been at the top of its game for centuries. Great nutty undertones and full fruit flavours give this wine great character and style.	-	795
Moet & Chandon Brut Imperial N/V Rosé Great body and flavour, suggestions of summer fruits and berries and a picture perfect rosé hue give this Champagne a wonderful feel of quality and body.	-	895
Veuve Clicquot Vintage Rosé 2002 Veuve's rosé Champagnes have always carried a great reputation. This 2002 vintage has a delicate pink hue and notes of wild strawberry, raspberry and gooseberry on the nose, developing to subtle flavours of fig and fresh almond on the palate	-	1350
Dom Perignon Vintage 2000 Dom Perignon's 2000 Vintage is dry, subtle and elegant with notes of biscuit, citrus and lemon peel. Its ageing has relaxed and toned the flavours and gives it wonderfully smooth and refreshing bubbles.	-	1950
Prosecco di Valdobbiandene 2008 Light and zesty with a refreshing zing, subtle tones of citrus, bread, and nuts come through in harmony in this classic Italian sparkling wine.	55	290
